Directions for Immigrants moves to a new location

Our new office will be at McFarlane Tower, Suite 260, 700 –4 Avenue SW

"Directions for Immigrants has out grown our current location and with the expansion of services for internationally educated health professionals we need more space for our study groups, workshops and staff. Our clients can expect an inviting, open office that is bigger and has recently been renovated. We will still provide all the same services, but we now have more space to allow us to offer additionally study groups and services in the up-coming future".

Karen Jenkins, Directions' Team Leader
